WILLIAM CLAY FORD

President

He was born and raised in the automotive industry, but professional football also is a vital part of his life. It was back in 1934 that William Clay Ford saw his very first Detroit Lions' game. The franchise had just moved to Detroit from Portsmouth, Ohio, and his father, the late Edsel Ford, took him to the University of Detroit stadium to watch this "new" team in action. Mr. Ford has been a Lions' fan ever since.

This will mark his 14th year as owner of the club, his 17th as president, and 21st as a top official with the Lions. As both fan and the chief executive, Mr. Ford's goal is to bring a championship to the Detroit Lions and their fans. And, he has demonstrated that he will spare no expense to reach that lofty goal.

In addition to his football duties and his activities in national and civic organizations, he also is deeply involved in the automotive industry as a director of the Ford Motor Company and Vice President — Product Design. After two years in the Naval Aviation Corps in World War II, Mr. Ford went to Yale University where he received a Bachelor of Science degree. He originally joined the Ford Motor Company's sales and advertising staff, and then started moving up through the different departments until becoming a company director with responsibility for corporate planning and design.

Among his numerous positions as a community leader, he is chairman of the board of Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village, secretary-treasurer of Henry Ford Hospital, president of the Edsel B. Ford Institute for Medical Research, trustee of the Eisenhower Medical Center, and a director of the National Tennis Hall of Fame and the United Foundation of Detroit.

An avid sports enthusiast, he played varsity tennis and soccer at Yale is a low handicap golfer, and possesses an unyielding determination to bring a pro football championship to the Detroit Lions.

Mr. Ford is married to the former Martha Firestone of Akron, Ohio. They have three daughters and a son.

RUSS THOMAS

Executive Vice President and General Manager

Russ is starting his 31st year with the Lions and his 11th as General Manager of the club. During his long career with the team, he has handled every conceivable job the pro game could offer. Thomas has been a player, scout, coach, broadcaster and has worked in player personnel. He was an assistant coach when the Lions won the NFL Championship in 1952. In addition to his coaching duties, he was in charge of scouting rival teams, evaluating college prospects and negotiating player salaries. All this experience has aided him greatly in the daily handling of the countless decisions and details involved in the running of a professional football organization.

Russ came out of West Virginia as one of the state's most sought after high school football and track stars. He held the national high school shot-put record before enrolling at Ohio State where he played on a national championship team under Paul Brown. Russ was drafted by the Lions in 1946 and played four seasons before surgery ended a promising playing career. Thomas was a 60-minute player with Detroit and gained All-Pro honors while serving as co-captain of the team.

Russ and his wife, Dorothy, live in Walled Lake. They are the parents of two married sons, John and Jim.

ROGERS LEHEW

Vice President and Assistant General Manager

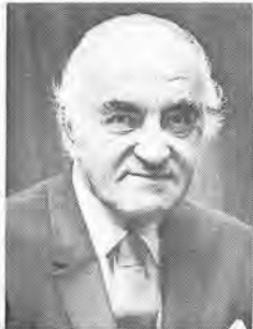

The personable Tulsa, Oklahoma native joined the Lions in 1974 after 15 seasons in the Canadian Football League. Rogers holds a masters' degree from the University of Tulsa and had his first taste of coaching at his alma mater in 1951. He went to the CFL in 1959 as assistant general manager to Jim Finks. Now with the Bears, when Finks moved to Minnesota in 1964, Rogers was elevated to the G.M.'s job. During his stay at Calgary, the Stampeders ranked among the elite of the CFL, winning three Conference titles and taking the coveted Grey Cup in 1971.

With the Lions, his chief duties revolve around the player personnel department. Rogers works closely on the draft and the evaluation of talent, both pro and college. He shares contract negotiations with Russ Thomas and serves as the team's liaison with the BLESTO scouting group.

Rogers and his wife, Joan, live in Birmingham with their twin sons, Larry and Garry, who attend the University of Windsor. A married daughter, Lora, lives in Calgary.

EDWIN J. ANDERSON

Consultant

"Andy" has served the Lions in important executive capacities for nearly 30 years, a record shared by few in the National Football League. A key figure in organizing a group of local sports enthusiasts who purchased the Detroit franchise in 1948, Anderson was named club president in 1949 and held that post for 12 seasons. He served as general manager for nine of those years and later as executive vice president and senior vice president.

A graduate of Beloit, Andy was an outstanding collegiate athlete. He entered the advertising and sales fields and was president of a Detroit brewery from 1941 until 1958.

Now as a consultant for the Lions, Andy was instrumental in planning for the club's move to the Silverdome in Pontiac, and remains active in many civic and fraternal organizations.

Andy and his wife, Sunny, have residences in Bloomfield Hills and Palm Springs, California. They have a married daughter, Mernie, Mrs. Richard Williams.

TOMMY HUDSPETH Head Coach

"I think we can win with this team. We have the nucleus of a fine football team." Those were the words of Tommy Hudspeth when he signed a three year contract in February to coach the Detroit Lions. It was October, 1976 when Tom took over a dispirited Lions team that had won only one of their first four games. Hudspeth says, "I felt my main job was to unify the players and the coaching staff." The record shows that under Hudspeth's leadership the Lions finished with a respectable five and five record and showed flashes of brilliance, especially at the Silverdome.

The personable Hudspeth, a two-way player at the University of Tulsa in the 50's, is a coach who insists on positive thinking and optimism. With 20 years of coaching experience behind him, he joined the Lions in 1974 as a pro scout and was promoted to Coordinator of Personnel and Scouting the next year. Looking ahead to the 1977 season, Hudspeth says, "My goal is a winner. To get it, we must be a well-disciplined, well-drilled team. Pro football despite its fancy plays, still depends on the basic fundamentals." The Lions are optimistic that in 1977 Tom Hudspeth and his outstanding coaching staff will come up with the "Right Combination."

"TOM'S THOUGHTS"

—"My kind of football is an aggressive, wide-open offense . . . and a hard hitting defense . . . both fundamentally sound."

—"I am demanding a complete effort by every player at all times. If we don't get it there will be some players waiting for a plane out of town."

—"I've hired a good, strong, fundamental staff and we want to start winning with the very first exhibition game."

—"I will be calling all the plays from the bench. I feel this can be done in a way that will make our quarterback have even more confidence in himself."

LIONS COACHING STAFF, 1977

Tommy Hudspeth

Family: Wife, Dorothy; sons, Jeff and Robby; daughters Jenifer and Heather

John has 22 years of coaching experience including the last nine in the Canadian Football League. Payne was head coach of the Saskatchewan Roughriders the past four seasons and capped his Canadian career with a Western Conference championship last year before losing the Grey Cup by a single point. Payne was a coaching compatriot with Tommy Hudspeth at Tulsa and Brigham Young.

FLOYD REESE, Strength and Conditioning, Special Teams Coach — 3rd year

Born: August 8, 1948 (28), Springfield, Missouri

College: UCLA, 1970

Position: Defensive Tackle

Coaching Career: UCLA, 1970-73; Georgia Tech, 1974; Lions, 1975-

Family: Wife, Sally; son, Jeremy

This will be the third year as a Lion for the former All-American defensive tackle who graduated from UCLA in 1970. Floyd coached in UCLA four years, moved to Georgia Tech in 1974 and joined the Lions the following season. He will be in charge of the kickoff and field goal teams and the teams strength and conditioning program.

FRITZ SHURMUR, Defensive Coordinator; Defensive Line Coach — 3rd year

Born: July 15, 1932 (44), Riverview, Michigan

HISTORY OF THE DETROIT LIONS

The Detroit Lions have embarked on their 44th year in the NFC but they were not the areas' first pro football team.

In 1920 the Detroit Heralds were a charter member of the American Professional Football Association, which was the original name of the present National Football League. But, they folded after two years. Then, the Detroit Panthers appeared in 1925. They also folded after two years. In 1928, the Detroit Wolverines were formed, but they failed after only one season.

In 1930, the then ten-year-old National Football League took in a franchise from Portsmouth, Ohio called the Spartans. After four seasons, the team was purchased for less than $8,000 by Detroit radio executive George A. Richards and was moved to the Motor City.

Playing in the University of Detroit Stadium before average crowds of 16,000 people, the new Detroit Lions won the NFL championship in their second year, 1935. Under the leadership of Coach "Potsy" Clark and stars such as Hall of Famer "Dutch" Clark, Ernie Caddel, George Christensen, "Ace" Gutowsky, Glenn Presnell and "Ox" Emerson, the early Lions established pro football in Detroit and for over 40 years it has been an integral part of the Michigan sports scene.

In 1940 Chicagoan Fred Mandel bought the club. Lion stars of that era were Hall of Famers Bill Dudley and Alex Wojciechowicz, John Greene, "Whizzer" White, Frank Sinkwich and "Camp" Wilson. Eight years later the club was sold to a group of local businessmen under the leadership of Edwin J. Anderson. The Detroit syndicate controlled the team until 1964 when William Clay Ford became sole owner for six million dollars. The club is now in its 13th year of the "Ford administration".

In the 1950's the Lions dominated the NFL with four division titles and three league championships. Under Head Coach Buddy Parker, the team was the back-to-back League champion in 1952 and 1953, defeating Cleveland in both title games. Stars of those glittering teams were such as Hall of Famers Bobby Layne and Jack Christiansen, Doak Walker, Les Bingaman, Cloyce Box and Bob Hoernschemeyer. The Lions' battles with the Browns in those days were classic confrontations between two giants of the blossoming NFL.

Since their last title year of 1957, under the coaching of George Wilson, the Lions have been looking in vain for the top spot. Such stars as Hall of Famers Joe Schmidt and "Night Train" Lane, and Wayne Walker, Nick Pietrosante, Alex Karras and Terry Barr have taken their places in the annals of pro football in Detroit.

In the 1960's the Lions had a couple of coaching changes with the longest term being that of former great player Joe Schmidt who coached for six seasons. His 1970 team made the post-season playoffs, but lost in the first round.

For the 1975 season, the Lions moved into a fantastic new home in Pontiac, Michigan, a town of 85,000 people located 30 miles north of Detroit. The Silverdome is a football-only sports building that seats over 80,000 spectators under a fiberglass roof. It is the largest air-supported domed structure in the world.

Now in the 1970's under the direction of Head Coach Tommy Hudspeth, and with current stars such as Charlie Sanders, Herb Orvis and Greg Landry, the Detroit Lions are a squad of enthusiastic, aggressive players whose aim is to return the team to a place at the top of the NFL.
